Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions

25 July 2007

MEDIA RELEASE

The Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions, Damian Bugg QC said that he is undertaking a review of all the available material in the Dr Haneef matter.

“Clearly not every matter which is prosecuted by my Office is reviewed by me”, Mr Bugg said, “but there are matters which have developed as this case has progressed which I am examining and a broader review of the available material and the proceedings to date is the best way to examine these matters appropriately.”

Mr Bugg will make a statement about the matter when the review is complete.
