

2★18

YEAR IN REVIEW

Launched our Reflect Reconciliation
Action Plan

4,667
Matters before the courts in 2017–2018

Overall satisfaction
score of 87%
in the Partner Agency
Satisfaction Survey

2,700
referrals received
from investigative agencies in 2017–2018

More than 100 Barristers
joined our External Junior Counsel Panel

97%
Prosecutions resulted in a conviction
against a target
of 90%
2017–18

Launched our new
Digital Referrals Gateway
for submitting briefs
electronically

Increased early
guilty pleas
saving investigative,
prosecution, court
and community
resources

Launched our new
internal legal case
management system,
caseHQ

Strengthened our relationships with
partner agencies
through proactive
and ongoing
liaison activities

279
practicing lawyers
supporting 40 investigative
agencies nationally

Top referring agency
Australian Federal Police—representing 25% of all matters referred

Appointed a team of Digital Litigation Specialists
to support our prosecutors

Shared knowledge and built capability
through temporary transfers and
secondments
between agencies

Launched our
Diversity and Inclusion Strategy
2018–2020
in consultation with our newly formed
Diversity Network

2,721
cases closed in 2018

Our commitment to bringing cases to a close through effective prosecutions is
ever-present

CDPP

Australia's Federal Prosecution Service

On behalf of all staff at the CDPP, I would like to wish you a safe and happy festive season and a prosperous New Year.

Sarah McNaughton SC, Director